Kite

A person is kitesurfing on a blue catamaran. The person is wearing a dark, patterned shirt and shorts, and is holding onto the kite's control bar. The catamaran is tilted, and the person is leaning back. The background is a clear blue sky with some clouds. The water is dark blue and has some whitecaps. The overall scene is dynamic and energetic.

The Trip

Your Kite2Sail adventure starts in
St. George's, Grenada

CHECK-IN: 18:30pm - Sunday

CHECK-OUT: 9:00am - Sunday

The starting base is located 20 away from St. George's airport. There our Kite2Sail team welcomes you and shows you your water home and your bunk/ cabin. A quick briefing is provided so that you immediately feel at home. When all kite enthusiasts are together on the catamaran, there is a joint briefing to discuss the common kite week. We try to be as flexible as possible with you, that means we always talk through the next day in the evening and see what the wind whispers in our ears.

Since our trip starts in Grenada, we save ourselves the 10-hour crossing from Martinique or St. Lucia to the kite spots.

Individualize your Itinerary

Throughout our entire journey, flexibility and your desires are very important to us! That means we naturally know the best spots, anchorages, islands, and great places, but we want to make sure your wishes are not overlooked! For this reason, we don't have a fixed route but instead go with the wind week by week!

Daily Life

You will wake up every day at a new & spectacular kite spot in a dreamlike setting without ever having to pack your things. The morning on board begins with the aroma of coffee. Drawn by this scent, you open your cabin door and jump straight into the water. After this refreshing start, we discuss the day's schedule over a hearty breakfast. Then, together, we raise anchor and head to the next kite spot. Depending on the spot, we either launch the kites from the beach or, with guidance from our instructors we use a clever technique to launch them directly from the catamaran. If you encounter any issues on the water or need some assistance, we are quickly by your side with our dinghy. In the evening, we enjoy a delicious glass of rum punch in a relaxed atmosphere and are treated to culinary delights by our onboard chef.
